TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST – 21st October 2018

HYMNS

8.30: 499, 256, 521, 351

10:30: Hymns on Screen

INTROIT HYMN

Opening Sentence

The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Prayer of the Day

God of unchangeable power, when the heaven and earth were made, the morning stars sang together and the host of heaven shouted for joy: open our eyes to the wonders of creation and teach us to use all things for good, to the honour of your glorious name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Welcome to any who are visitors today.

We hope you enjoy worshipping with us.

Our service begins on page 119 of

'A Prayer Book for Australia'.

THE SERVICE TODAY

FIRST READING

A Reading from the book of Job, chapter 38, beginning at the first verse.

The Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: "Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. "Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together, and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy? "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that a flood of waters may cover you? Can you send forth lightnings, so that they may go and say to you, 'Here we are'? Who has put wisdom in the inward parts, or given understanding to the mind? Who has the wisdom to number the clouds? Or who can tilt the waterskins of the heavens, when the dust runs into a mass and the clods cling together? "Can you hunt the prey for the lion, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, when they crouch in their dens, or lie in wait in their covert? Who provides for the raven its prey, when its young ones cry to God, and wander about for lack of food?" Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 104 1-10, 26

Response: Bless the Lord O my soul: O Lord my God how great you are!

Clothed with majesty and honour, wrapped in light as in a garment. You have stretched out the heavens like a tent-cloth and laid the beams of your dwelling upon their waters, you make the clouds your chariot and ride upon the wings of the wind. You make the winds your messengers and flames of fire your ministers. R...

You have set the earth on its foundations, so that it shall never be moved. The deep covered it as with a mantle, the waters stood above the hills. At your rebuke they fled, at the voice of your thunder they hurried away; they went up to the mountains they went down by the valleys, to the place which you had appointed for them. R...

You fixed a limit which they may not pass, they shall not return again to cover the earth. Lord how various are your works, in wisdom you have made them all and the earth is full of your creatures. R...

SECOND READING

A Reading from the book of Hebrews, chapter 5, beginning at the first verse.

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"; as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

*Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.*

GRADUAL HYMN

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all.. Alleluia!

THE HOLY GOSPEL

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

*The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St. Mark Chapter 10 beginning at verse 35.*

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

For the Gospel of the Lord Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Living God, in this holy meal you fill us with new hope. May the power of your love, which we have known in word and sacrament, continue your saving work among us, give us courage for our pilgrimage, and bring us to the joys you promise.

Father, we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice through Jesus Christ our Lord. Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.

Benediction

The peace of God which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord;

and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you and with those whom you love and for whom you have prayed, today and always.
Amen.

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY

We would like to continue our Education for Ministry course in the Parish. This is a stimulating course of reading and theological reflection to help develop your relationship with God and empower and enhance your existing ministry. It is designed for lay people (not just Anglicans) – not just those in 'up-front' positions; it is not preparing for ordination, you need no theological training and there are no exams! Speak to Helen, Victoria, Kate, John, Carole, Bev., Linda, Charlotte, Joan, Jane (Rushworth), Jenny, Mary or Beryl for more information – or we may tap you on the shoulder and ask if you are interested.

We are in our 10th year of EfM in the parish with local mentors and have a strong EfM alumni who wanted to continue the learning, worship and fellowship after they'd finished the course – this speaks volumes for how worthwhile they found the course.
